"Neither the husband, wife, partner,,,,, husband nor wife, neither the mother nor the father, nor the partner nor any other close relative may inherit any part of the property." Memorandum of the President of the Italian Republic, December 3, 1949 Byron J. Seitz, Esq. Attorney-in-Fact for the Executor of the Estate of Anthony von Koskull, Esq. With Dedication A copy of our previous communication, dated August 22, 2012, which was sent by registered mail to the following parties: Byron J. Seitz, Esq. 548 S. Main St., P.O. Box 609, Saint Johnsbury, Vermont 05602 Email: bseitz@saintjohnsburyvt.rr.com (the same email address as above). This letter is being transmitted to you in my capacity as attorney-in-fact. The following are the reasons I have been retained as attorney-in-fact for the Estate of Anthony von Koskull: (1) the will provides for a bank account in Austria and the Executor wants to honor the bequest; (2) the estate is not worth much, the balance sheet provided to me shows zero as of May 30, 2012 and the Executor requests payment for this service so the Executor can liquidate assets; (3) there is no one to whom a final accounting can be provided and (4) the Executor is highly uncooperative. In order to protect the Estate, I am tendering a $300 retainer to be placed in the estate bank account and I will be compensated for my services. (a) is signed and was sworn to before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths or to take acknowledgements, and (b) is attested in the following manner: "Sara Salom" in the presence of us, Evelyn J. Loomis (Author of this statement) and Byron J. Seitz (attorney-in-fact for the Executor of the Estate) We have examined this
