Any offers for other file formats? You can use FFmpeg to transcode without destroying the quality: `ffmpeg -i BansheeS01E01.720p.hdtv.x264.m2ts -b:v 1200k BansheeS01E01.720p.hdtv.x264.m2ts.mp4` `ffmpeg -i BansheeS01E01.720p.hdtv.x264.m2ts -b:v 1200k BansheeS01E01.720p.hdtv.x264.m2ts.mkv` `ffmpeg -i BansheeS01E01.720p.hdtv.x264.m2ts -b:v 1200k BansheeS01E01.720p.hdtv.x264.m2ts.mp4` I think you'll find that depending on your video software, adding `-b:v 1200k` for any of the above will set the bit rate at 1200kbps instead of the default of around 500kbps. The last one is smallest, by size. If you want this in a lower resolution, try 400x320. I think you can get that with `--scale 1/4`.

Pastor and Doctor Paul Oseola embraces the struggle as he fights his way to freedom from drug addiction and pornography to come to know God on a deeper level. From his latest life experiences in prison ministry, church planting in South Africa and Rwanda, and as a pastor and author of two books, Paul shares how God's sovereignty is displayed in the suffering of Christians and the power of perseverance. Pastor and author Paul Oseola reveals truths and principles gleaned from the Bible and from his own life of faith. He shares on how we can overcome our fears and remain faithful in a world of constant temptation. He gives practical guidance on how to tackle our fears and unleash supernatural power to overcome them. 1 Kings 8:30 says, "It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not fail you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed." As Paul Oseola preaches the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, he knows God's favor is upon him. And during moments of weakness in his life and ministry, he says he will not forsake the work of God
