• Get the media assets • Read and follow the instructions • Get ready for a beautiful day in the wild! • Let's play some marbles! Notes: This is a direct translation of our trainee lesson from the French version of 3D Language The Greetings Lesson will be in Spanish and the Pilot Episode will be in French There are two completely different versions with the Greetings Lesson in French and the Pilot Episode in Spanish The Greetings Lesson: 3dlang.org/en/greetings/greetings_lesson/ The Pilot Episode: 3dlang.org/en/greetings/pilot/ Each episode is released for the trainee episode and the shop episode. For your convenience, the files have been exported from the module store as audio files. Only the text content is available in French and Spanish. The audio in English is only a placeholder. I have to admit, it's not perfect English, but it's not a bad effort. If you need any help, you can contact the moderators in our discord server. The link to the Discord Server is: 3dlang.org/en/discord/ If you like the audio and would like to learn more about 3D Language you can go here: 3dlanguage.org/ Have fun with the episode, I hope you enjoy it! A lot of people dream of starting their own business or perhaps, they have their own business already. However, many of them fail in realizing their dreams because they do not know the basics about running a business. This is why, for all of us who want to have our own business but do not know how to run it, this video will be useful. This is the most important thing that you need to know and that you can learn from this video. What do you need to know before starting your own business? What is the first step that you can take to start your own business? What are the things that you need to be aware of before you make any plans? This video will teach you all of these things, plus many more. First, you will learn how to run a business from the most important thing you can learn in your business - the name of it. Once you have a name for your business, you will want to open a business account. You will also learn the difference between personal and

What's New in the?

The object of the 3DLanguage app was to come up with a storyboard of what the world of 3DLanguage will be, and to practice developing a vocabulary and a form for that story. The app gives you an introduction to the idea of 3D Language in a more vivid way than a web page or even a YouTube video. We have a GitHub and Language Log and our mailing list are great places to discuss our world and why we're creating it. The RSS feed for our posts is another useful source of information. * App uses a lot of Swift, an Apple programming language. If you have any other ideas or requests, feel free to ask us on our mailing list, GitHub issues page, or Twitter. Background ------------ When the goal of the 3D Language website was to produce a basic introduction to the idea of a 3D world, we asked the community to contribute a short introductory example of what 3D would be like. Description: We're still in the early phases of development but we're already pretty excited about what we're planning for this world. To create the 3D Language website we decided to first produce a 3D world that a) is related to what you might see if you picked up a 3D language, and b) can
